To Whom it may concern,

RE: Enviroply Roofing

Enviroply roofing have worked as a bona-fide subcontractor to our company on several projects over the past 2 years.

The projects have ranged from church extensions, new veterinary surgeries, industrial buildings and domestic work.

Enviroply roofing have always provided the required risk assessments, method statements and insurance documentation to us prior to any work commencing, any works carried out by them has always been done in a safe considerate manner.

Hough Construction UK Ltd have strict health and Safety Policy in Place and would not use any sub-contractor who would jeopardize our attention to health & safety

Yours Faithfully
