To; whom it may concern,

Ref: Enviroply Roofing

We have employed Enviroply Roofing as a subcontractor for a range of projects we have undertaken over the course of the last couple of years; Enviroply roofing has always adhered to the standards we have set with regard to workmanship and to H&S requirements.

The projects we have employed Enviroply Roofing on have ranged from new build schools, industrial sector buildings, domestic sector works and refurbishment works.

We always find that the risk assessments and method statements specific to each individual job are completed to an exceptionally high standard and they are always provided prior to the commencement of the jobs, all works have been carried out to the required standards, and in a safe and efficient manner.

Yours Faithfully,
